

Formative assessment

Exercise 01:

Identify the type of each sentence (declarative, interrogative, imperative, or exclamatory).

1. Have a great day!
2. What time is it?
3. The cat is sleeping.
4. Clean your room.
5. I can't believe we won!

Exercise 02:

Create a sentence for each type (declarative, interrogative, imperative, and exclamatory) based on the given prompts.

1. Express happiness or surprise.

- Declarative: _____
- Interrogative: _____
- Imperative: _____
- Exclamatory: _____

2. Give a command.

- Declarative: _____
- Interrogative: _____
- Imperative: _____
- Exclamatory: _____

3. Ask a question about someone's favorite hobby.

- Declarative: _____
- Interrogative: _____
- Imperative: _____
- Exclamatory: _____

4. Share a statement about the weather.

- Declarative: _____
- Interrogative: _____
- Imperative: _____
- Exclamatory: _____

5. Express relief or relaxation.

- Declarative: _____
- Interrogative: _____
- Imperative: _____
- Exclamatory: _____

Exercise 03:

Identify the Sentence Type Identify whether the given sentence is simple or compound.

1. The sun was shining brightly, and the sky was clear.
2. John enjoys reading books.
3. Maria and David played basketball at the community center.
4. The engine roared to life, and the wheels started turning.
5. Engineers designed a more efficient turbine for the power plant.

Exercise 04:

Create Sentences Create a sentence for each type (simple and compound) based on the given prompts.

1. Describe your favorite hobby.
 - Simple: _____
 - Compound: _____
2. Share something you like and dislike.
 - Simple: _____
 - Compound: _____
3. Share something you like and dislike about working on engines.
 - Simple: _____
 - Compound: _____